Yes Naturally

MARCH - AUGUST, 2013

IMAGINE YOU'RE AN INSECT...

Experience nature as you have never experienced it before. Renowned curator Ine Gevers is bringing together international art, including work by Superflex, Francis Aljys, Ai Weiwei and Damien Hirst, with the goal to contribute to the development of a shared ecological intelligence: Yes Naturally. Powerful inspiration for organizations which take sustainability seriously. Yes Naturally is being held in the GEM Museum for Contemporary Art, Museum of Photography and The Hague Municipal Museum. All neighbours of Worldhotel Bel Air. Yes Naturally is offering a selection of memorable experiences for attendees of meetings and conferences in Worldhotel Bel Air. The Insects perspective tour, is especially noteworthy. Participants are dressed in an insect costume to experience the world around us from an unexpected perspective. A very inspiring experience people will never forget. If dressing up like an insect is a step too far, you can make a choice of the following initiatives:
